

AAT

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

ORDER BY CONSENT

In the matter of

Lyn Winter (244533)

Misconduct

Lyn Winter's professional or personal conduct, was found to be in breach of the Code of Professional Ethics and to have posed a risk to the public or was likely to undermine public confidence in the Association or its members; namely:

1. Between on or around 09 October 2017 and 01 March 2019, she provided self-employed accountancy or related services to the public whilst not registered or licensed or approved to provide such services whilst subject to an exemption.

Finding

Grounds for disciplinary action existed and the matter was suitable for exercise of the Investigations Team's powers under the Disciplinary Regulations.

Order

Lyn Winter is hereby:

- i. Reprimanded. The reprimand will remain live on her record for a period of 12 months.
- ii. Fined £558.00
- iii. Warned that she must ensure she is fully aware of – and compliant with – all guidelines, policies and regulations that govern her membership of AAT.

Consent

Lyn Winter has agreed to submit to the decision of the Investigations Team in accordance with Regulation 6 of the Disciplinary Regulations.

25 June 2019