In the matter of Emma-Jayne Plant (10174304)

Misconduct Emma-Jayne Plant's professional or personal conduct was found to be in breach of the Code of Professional Ethics and to have posed a risk to the public or was likely to undermine public confidence in the Association or its members; namely:

1. Whilst a full member of AAT between on or around October 2015 and 12 September 2016 she provided self-employed accountancy services to the public whilst not registered or licensed, or approved to provide such services whilst subject to an exemption.
2. Between on or around October 2015 and 12 September 2016, she provided accountancy, taxation or related consultancy services to the public without being registered with a supervisory authority for the purposes of Anti Money Laundering as required by the Money Laundering Regulations 2007.

Finding Grounds for disciplinary action existed and the matter was suitable for exercise of the Investigations Team's powers under the Disciplinary Regulations.

Order Emma-Jayne Plant is hereby:

1. Reprimanded. This reprimand will remain live on Mrs Plant's record for a period of three years (36 months) from the date of this Order.
2. Fined £257.00.

Consent Emma-Jayne Plant has agreed to submit to the decision of the Investigations Team in accordance with Regulation 6 of the Disciplinary Regulations.
