

AAT

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

ORDER BY CONSENT

In the matter of

Tracy-Jane Ranger (179678)

Misconduct

Tracy-Jane Ranger's professional or personal conduct, was found to be in breach of the Code of Professional Ethics and to have posed a risk to the public or was likely to undermine public confidence in the Association or its members; namely:

1. Between on or around an unspecified date in July 2017 and on or around 12 September 2018, she provided self-employed accountancy or related services to the public whilst not licensed or approved to provide such services whilst subject to an exemption.
2. Between on or around an unspecified date in July 2017 and on or around 12 September 2018, she provided self-employed accountancy or related services to the public without being registered with a supervisory authority for the purposes of Anti Money Laundering.

Finding

Grounds for disciplinary action existed and the matter was suitable for exercise of the Investigations Team's powers under the Disciplinary Regulations.

Order

Tracy-Jane Ranger is hereby:

- i. Reprimanded. The reprimand will remain live on her file for a period of 24 months from the date of this Order.
- ii. Fined £177.00.
- iii. Warned that she must ensure that she is fully aware of – and compliant with – all guidelines, regulations and policies which govern her membership of AAT.

Consent

Tracy-Jane Ranger has agreed to submit to the decision of the Investigations Team in accordance with Regulation 6 of the Disciplinary Regulations.

20 December 2018