

AAT

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

ORDER BY CONSENT

In the matter of David Rawlinson MAAT, 231250

Misconduct David Rawlinson's conduct was found to be in breach of the Code of Professional Ethics and to have posed a risk to the public and/or undermine public confidence in the Association and its members as follows:

1. Between, on or about 16 February 2011 to 19 February 2018, David Rawlinson provided self-employed accountancy or related services to the public whilst not registered as a licensed member or approved to provide such services whilst subject to an exemption.

Finding Grounds for disciplinary action existed and the matter was suitable for the exercise of the Investigations Team's powers under the Disciplinary Regulations.

Order David Rawlinson is hereby:

1. Reprimanded; the reprimand will expire 12 months from the date of this Order
2. Deemed ineligible to apply for fellow membership whilst the Reprimand is 'live'
3. Fined £1,573.

Consent David Rawlinson consented to the decision of the Investigations Team in accordance with Regulation 6 of the Disciplinary Regulations.

10 July 2019